U/7 – DALMANS MIDAS FC

APPEARANCES - 24

GOALS - 4

AWARDS: MOST PROMISING YOUNG PLAYER- Junior Division(under 7 - under 17)

HONOURS: 2007 LEAGUE WINNERS, CHAMPS OF CHAMPS AND KNOCK-OUT WINNERS

When his soccer career started at Dalmans Midas FC in 2007 he was the only 4 year old player - the youngest player in his district.

He appeared in two of the local newspapers, namely People's Post and The Plainsman.

Cole won every trophy available at the district in his first year of soccer.

He is also wearing red socks and white sneakers with the number 90 on the side. The background is a vast, open grassy area under bright sunlight.

U/7 2008 – HOLY CROSS FC

APPEARANCES- 18

GOALS - 4

AWARDS: MOST PROMISING YOUNG PLAYER

When he started his career at Holy Cross FC, it was an adjustment for him, as he knew more about the rules and regulations of the game than his teammates.

This frustrated him somewhat, but he very quickly influenced them in a positive way.

U/6 2009 – Panorama FC

APPEARANCES - 19

GOALS - 62

AWARDS: Little League Player of the Year.

Cole move up to Johannesburg where he join Panorama football Club Midway through the season. For the first time he played in his proper age group. The “no goalkeeper” rule was used to his advantage as he was head over shoulders over his peers, scoring the most goals as a six year old ever at his current club averaging just over 3 goal per game. This year also marks the first time that cole picked up the Player of the Year title.

U/7 2010 – Panorama FC

APPEARANCES- 17

GOALS - 28

AWARDS: Linhill Celtic Tiger of the tournament
Weltevereden Park Primary-Soccer Merit Award

Cole is not your typical 7 - year old.

He lives/eat/sleep soccer and has a passion for football.

What makes him stand out amongst his peers is that his knowledge to ‘read’ a game and his agility at his age is truly admirable.

His ambition at the tender age of 7 is to play for Manchester United and in the interim for his beloved Ajax Cape Town team.

He aspires to follow in the footsteps of his two role models, Michael Owen and Travis Graham (His mom’s cousin currently at Ajax CT).

Cole Currently attends the “School of Excellence” that’s being run by ETS at Panorama FC.
